UM AROTC SECRETARY
RECEIVES THIRD AWARD
FOR EFFECIENCY

MISSOULA, Mont.---

Mrs. Kathryn E. Page, Missoula, secretary in the Army ROTC Department of Military Science at the University of Montana, has received her third commendation within a year from the Sixth Army Presidio in San Francisco for excellence in the performance of duties.

Mrs. Page, a native of Defiance, Ohio, recently was awarded a $150 check along with written commendation from the Sixth Army through Col. Walter A. Pashley Jr., military science chairman on the Missoula campus.

She also received work-commendation awards last fall and last spring from the Sixth Army. Col. Pashley recommended her for the most recent award.

Concerning Mrs. Page's worthiness to receive the check and achievement award, Col. Pashely said, "Mrs. Kathryn Page has performed all of her duties in an extremely cooperative and outstanding manner. She has spent many hours at her own volition reading and researching the many Army regulations and circulars pertaining to the forms and documents she is required to prepare. Her willingness to seek knowledge and her desire for self-improvement has greatly added to the efficiency of this office by eliminating any requirement for instructor personnel to supervise her work."

Mrs. Page, daughter of Mrs. A.C. Deffinger, 432 Franklin, Defiance, Ohio, has lived in Missoula since 1936.
